

Dr. E. Sujatha, Assistant Professor
Molecular Plant Physiology and Stress
Physiology

Dr. E. Sujatha joined the Department as Assistant Professor in the year 2013. Before joining in Osmania University, she worked as Assistant Professor in Telangana University from 2007 to 2013. She did her B.Sc., M.Sc (Botany) and Ph. D from Osmania University and M. Sc. Biotechnology from Kuvempu University. She also holds a Two-year PG Diploma in Network Centered Computing from NIIT. Currently she is teaching Plant Biochemistry, Plant Physiology, Molecular Plant Physiology and Stress Physiology to Post Graduate Students. Her area of research is Molecular Stress Physiology. She has 15 publications to her credit and authored Seven Chapters in Intermediate Second Year Botany Text Book of Telugu Academy. She has attended several National and International Seminars and Conferences. She is presently guiding Four Scholars for their Doctoral Degree. She is Life Member of Indian Society of Plant Physiology, Biotechnology Society of India, Indian Science Congress Association and Indian Botanical Society. She held administrative positions like Joint Director, Academic Audit and Additional Controller of Examinations. She is now Public Relations Officer of the Osmania University